

PLACE TYPE: ACTIVITY CENTER

Areas with dense building placement and high amounts of circulation across and along streets, with a high proportion of people accessing buildings by walking or on bike.

EXAMPLE PLACES

Downtown, Campustown, Somerset Village

COMPATIBLE STREET TYPES

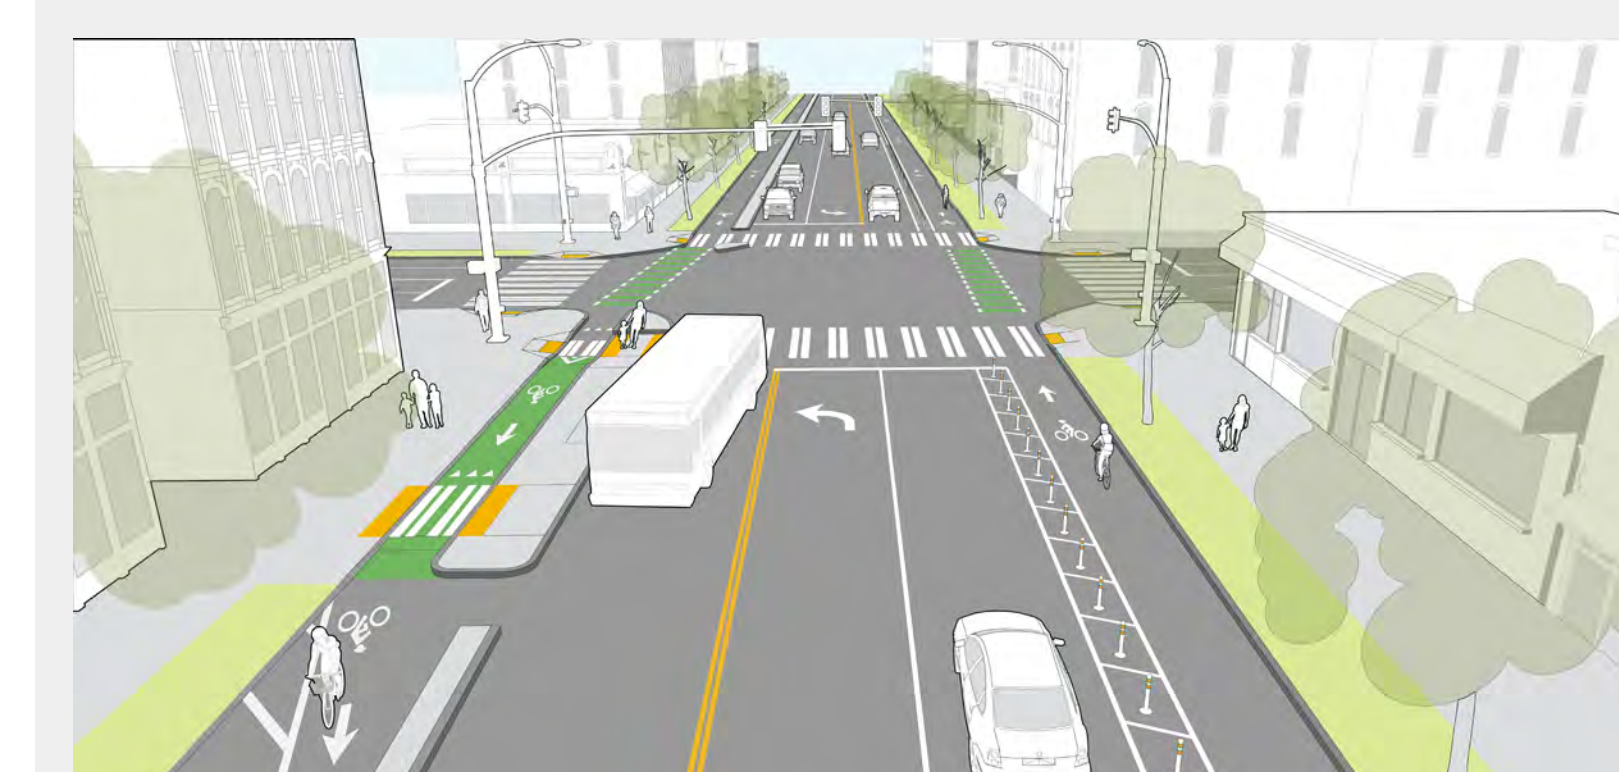

Access-Oriented Streets

Shared Street

Mixed Use Street

Streets that Balance Access and Throughput

Mixed Use Avenue

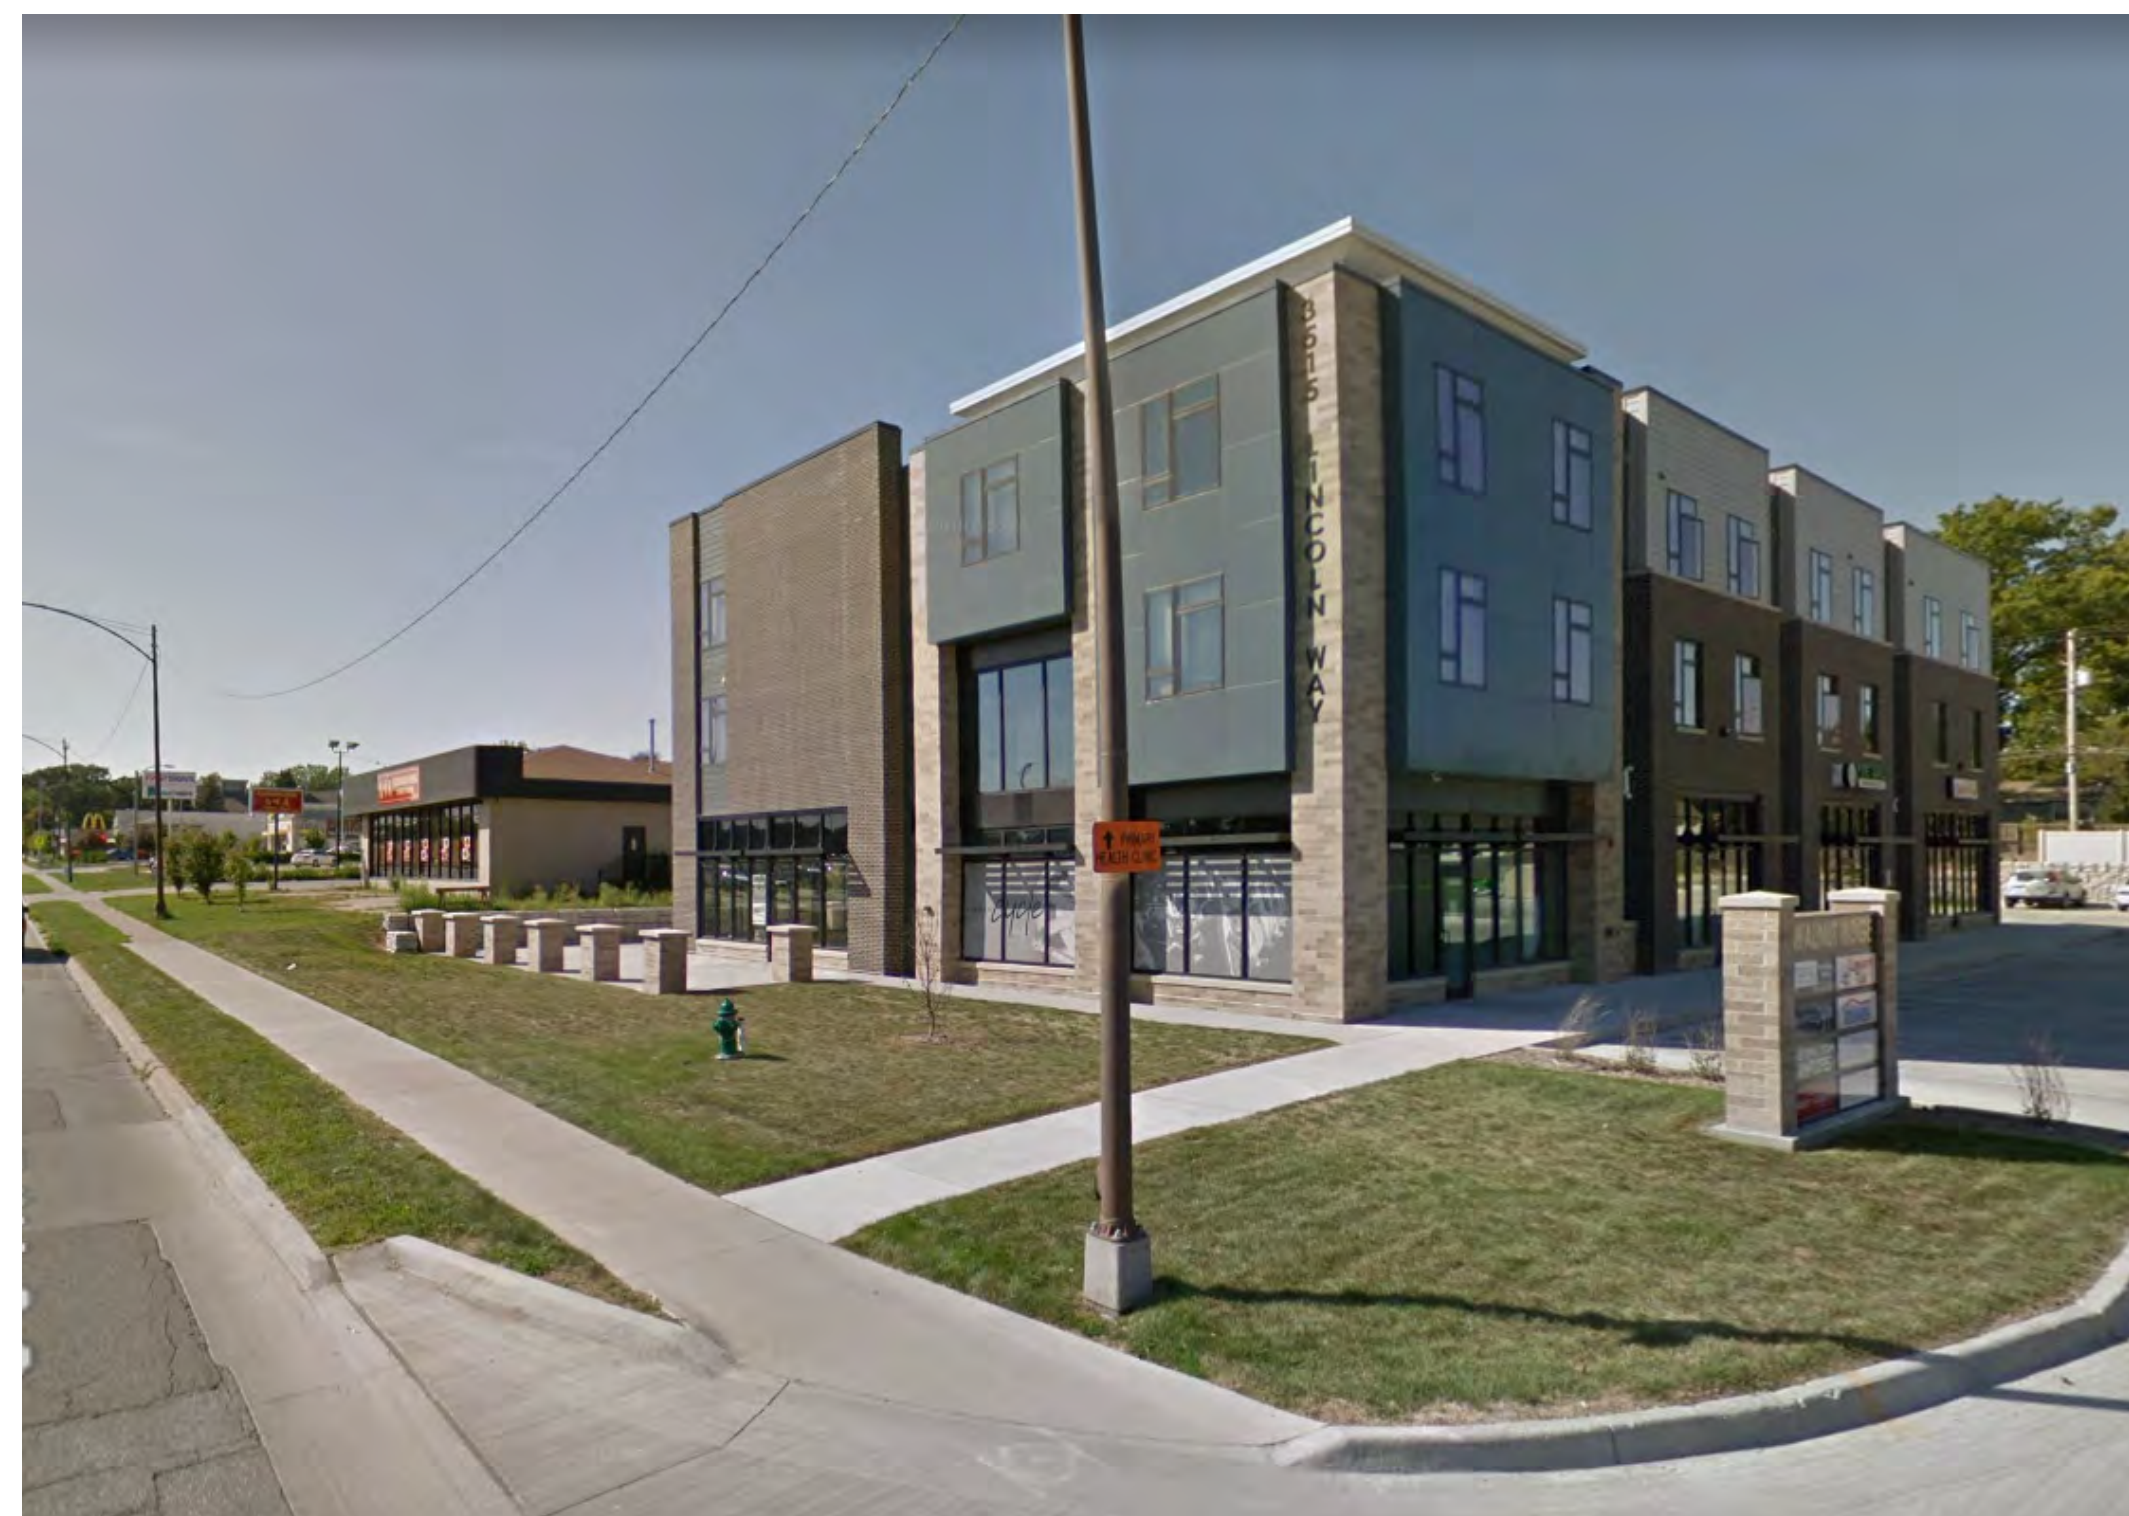

PLACE TYPE: URBAN MIX

Areas or corridors with a mix of uses, with people accessing buildings using multiple modes of transportation.

EXAMPLE PLACES

Lincoln Way Corridor, Hospital/Medical District, ISU Research Park

COMPATIBLE STREET TYPES

Access-Oriented Streets

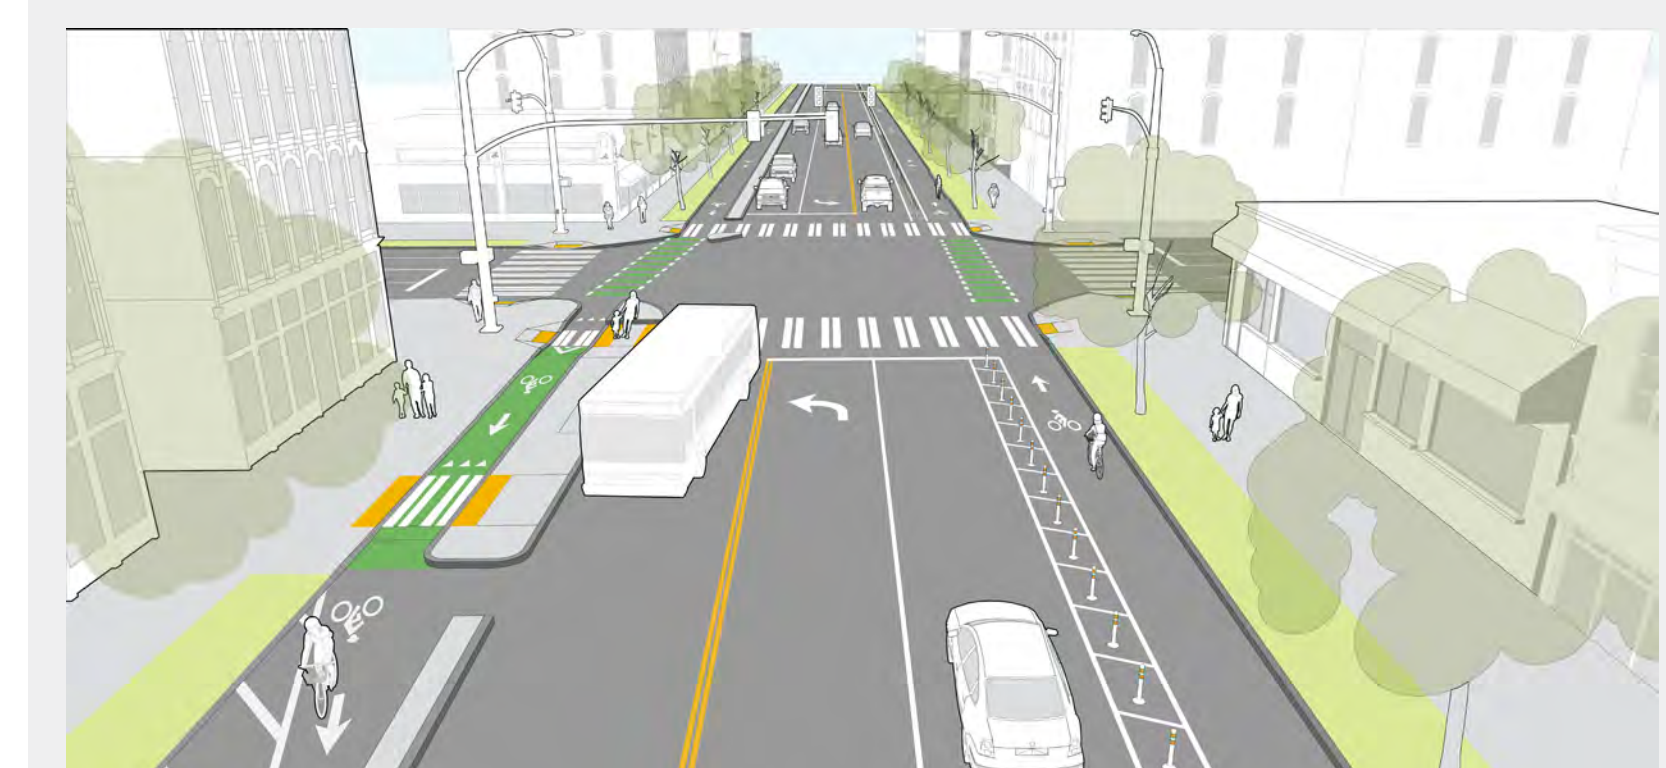

Shared Street

Mixed Use Street

Neighborhood Street

Mixed Use Avenue

Streets that Balance Access and Throughput

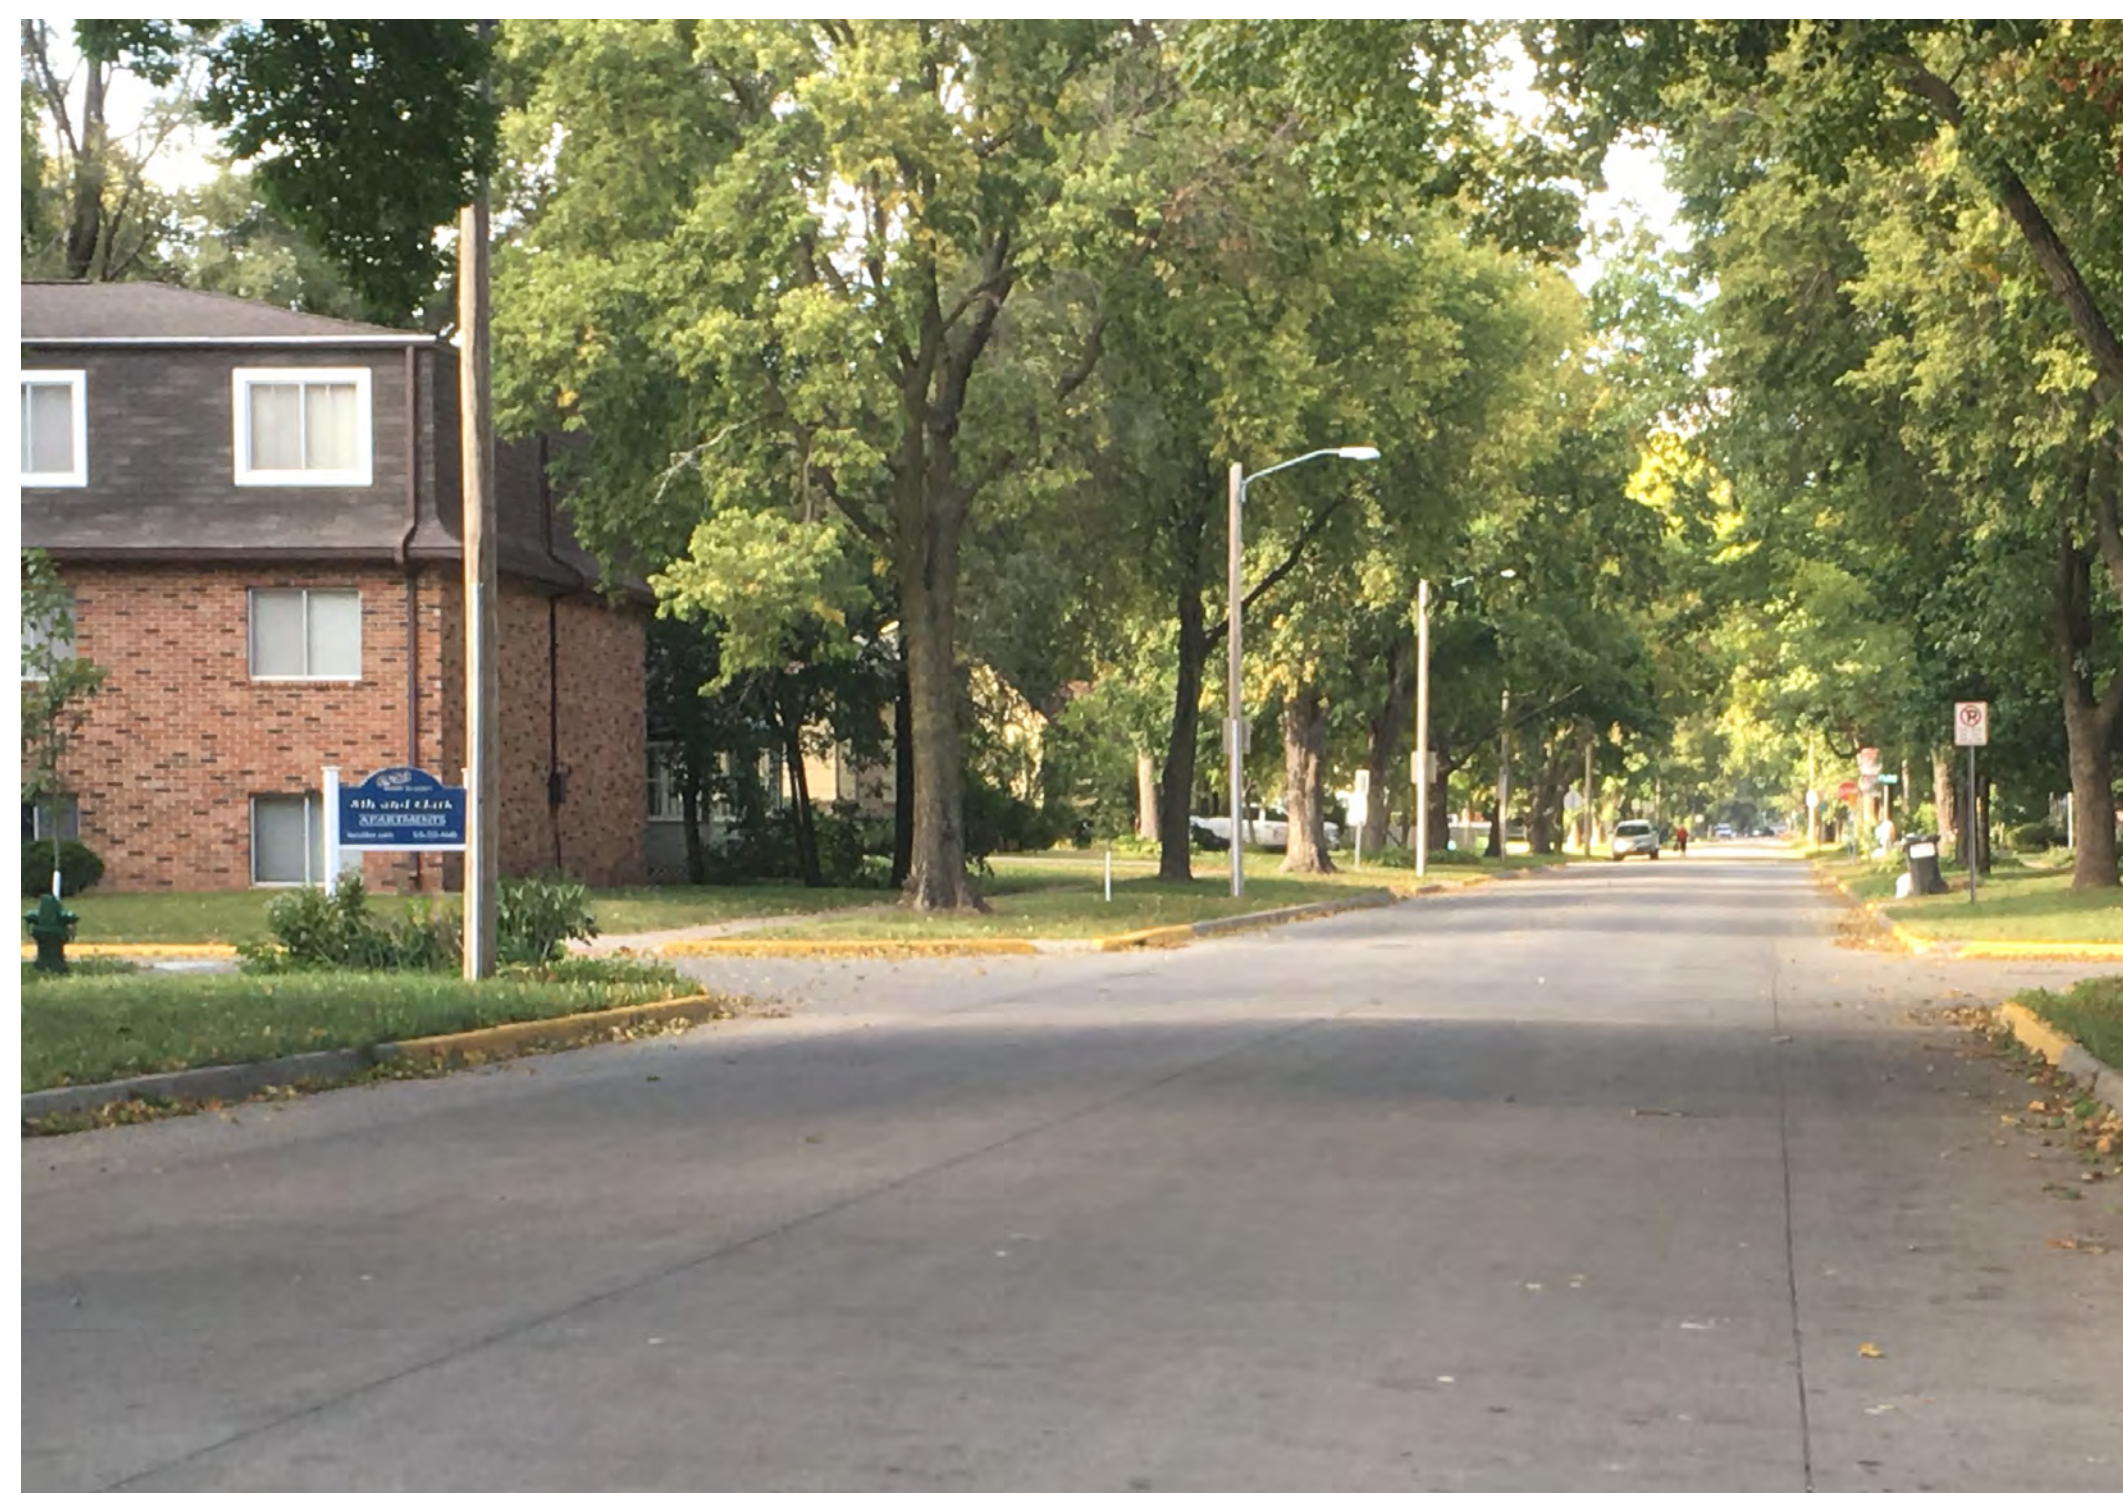

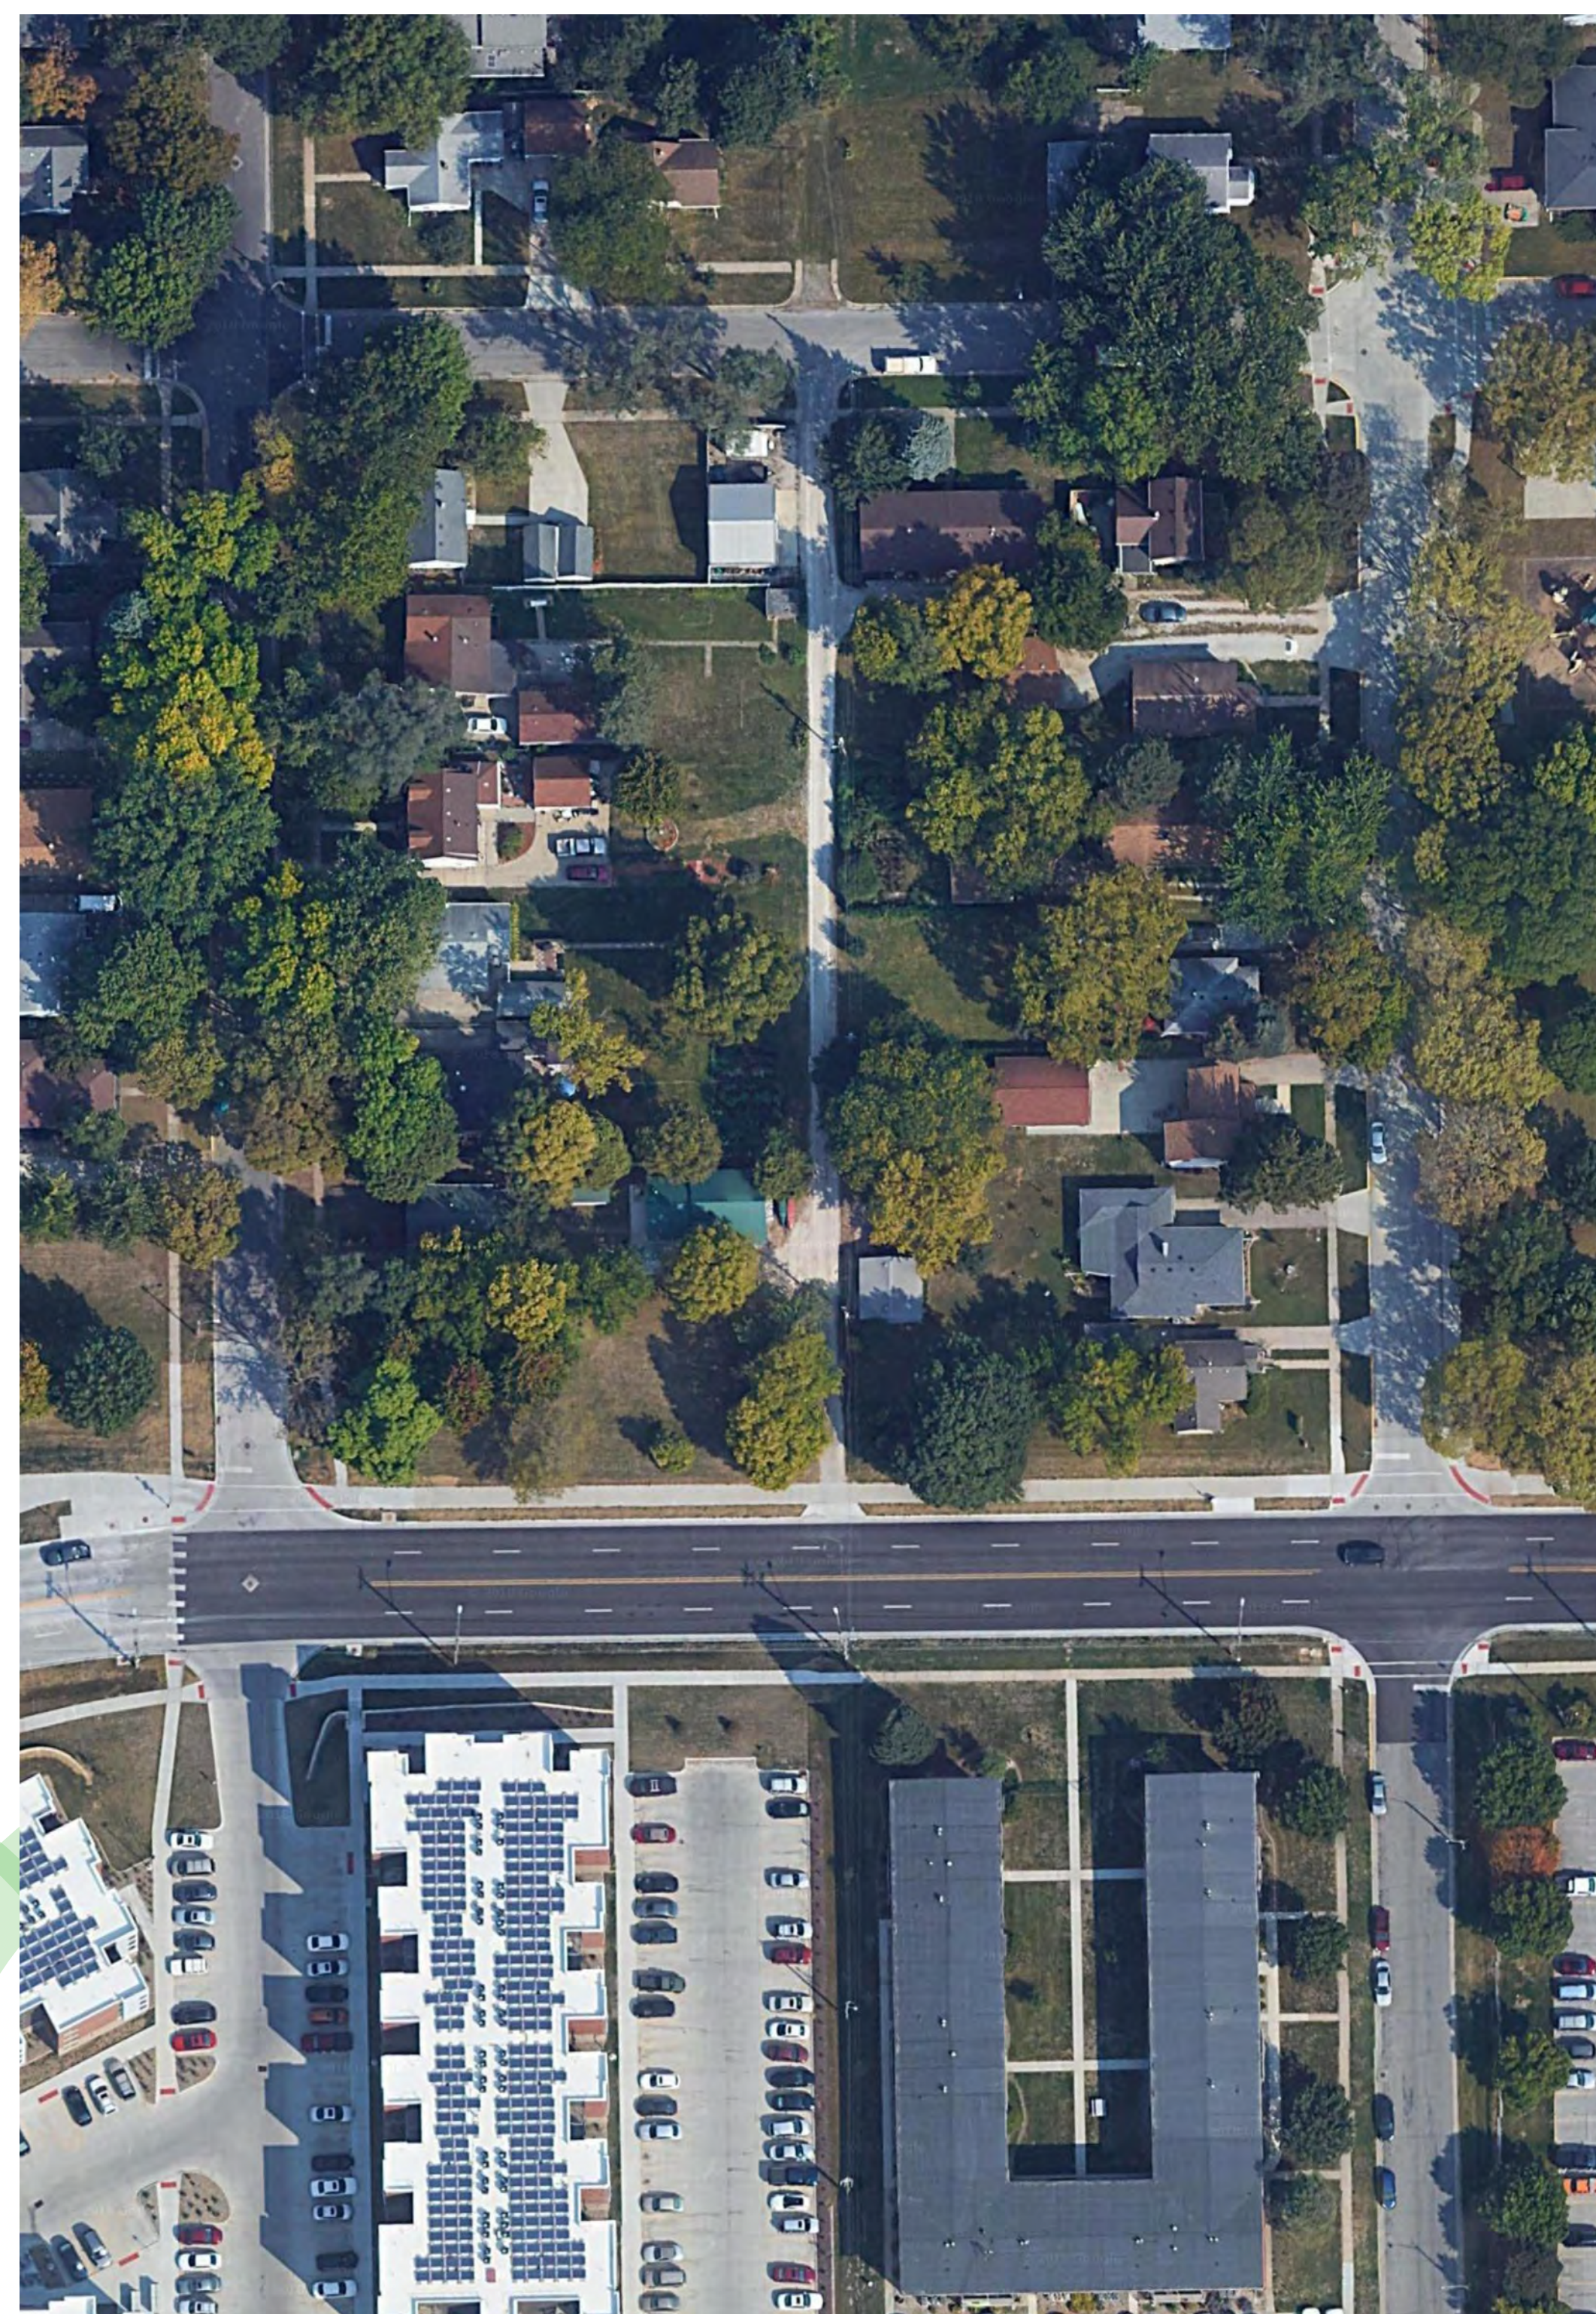

PLACE TYPE: RESIDENTIAL

Areas with single and multi-family homes, oftentimes with adjacent schools and parks.

EXAMPLE PLACES

Numerous neighborhoods throughout Ames

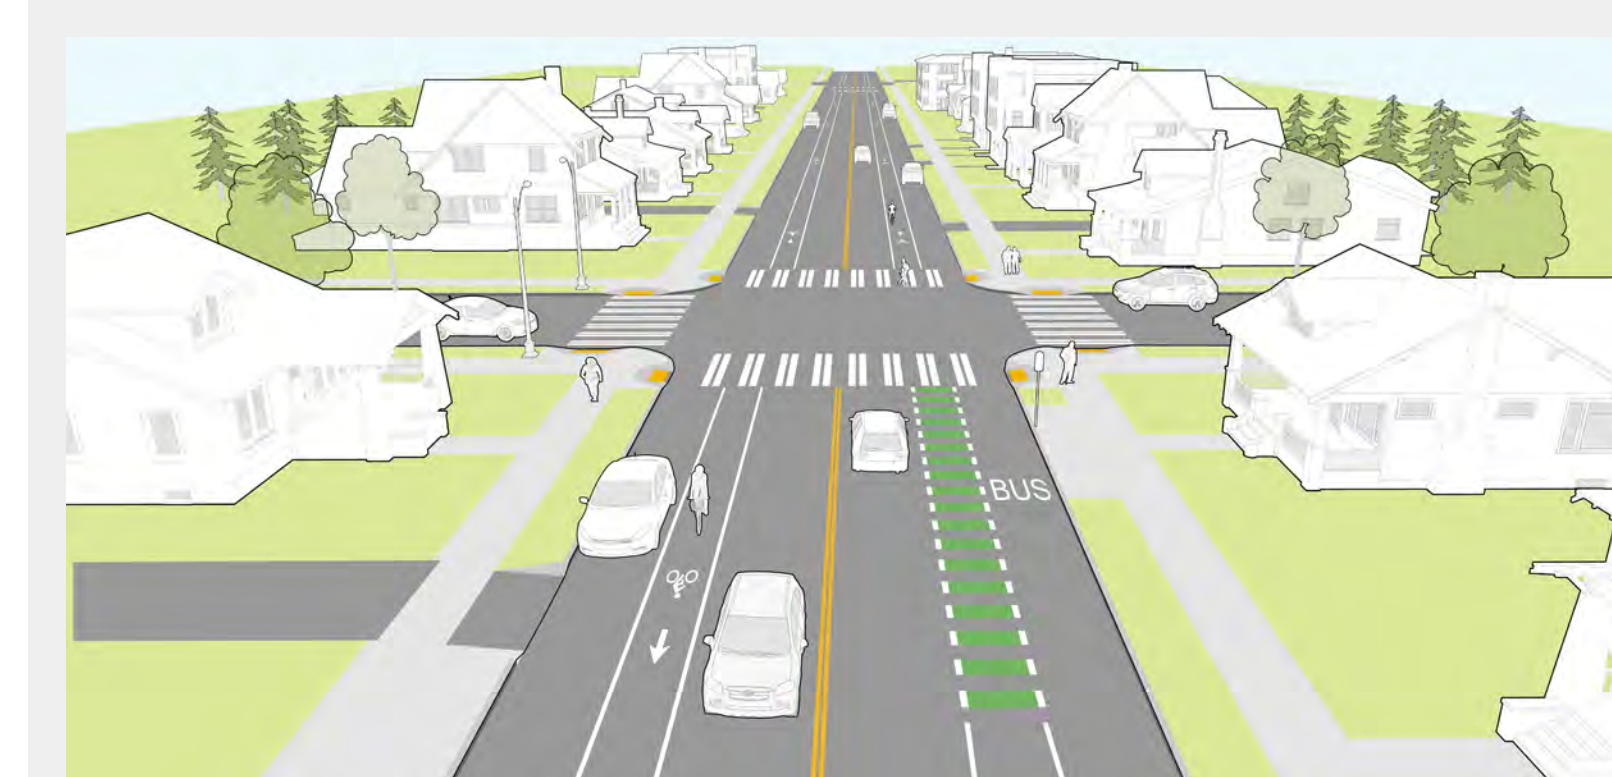

COMPATIBLE STREET TYPES

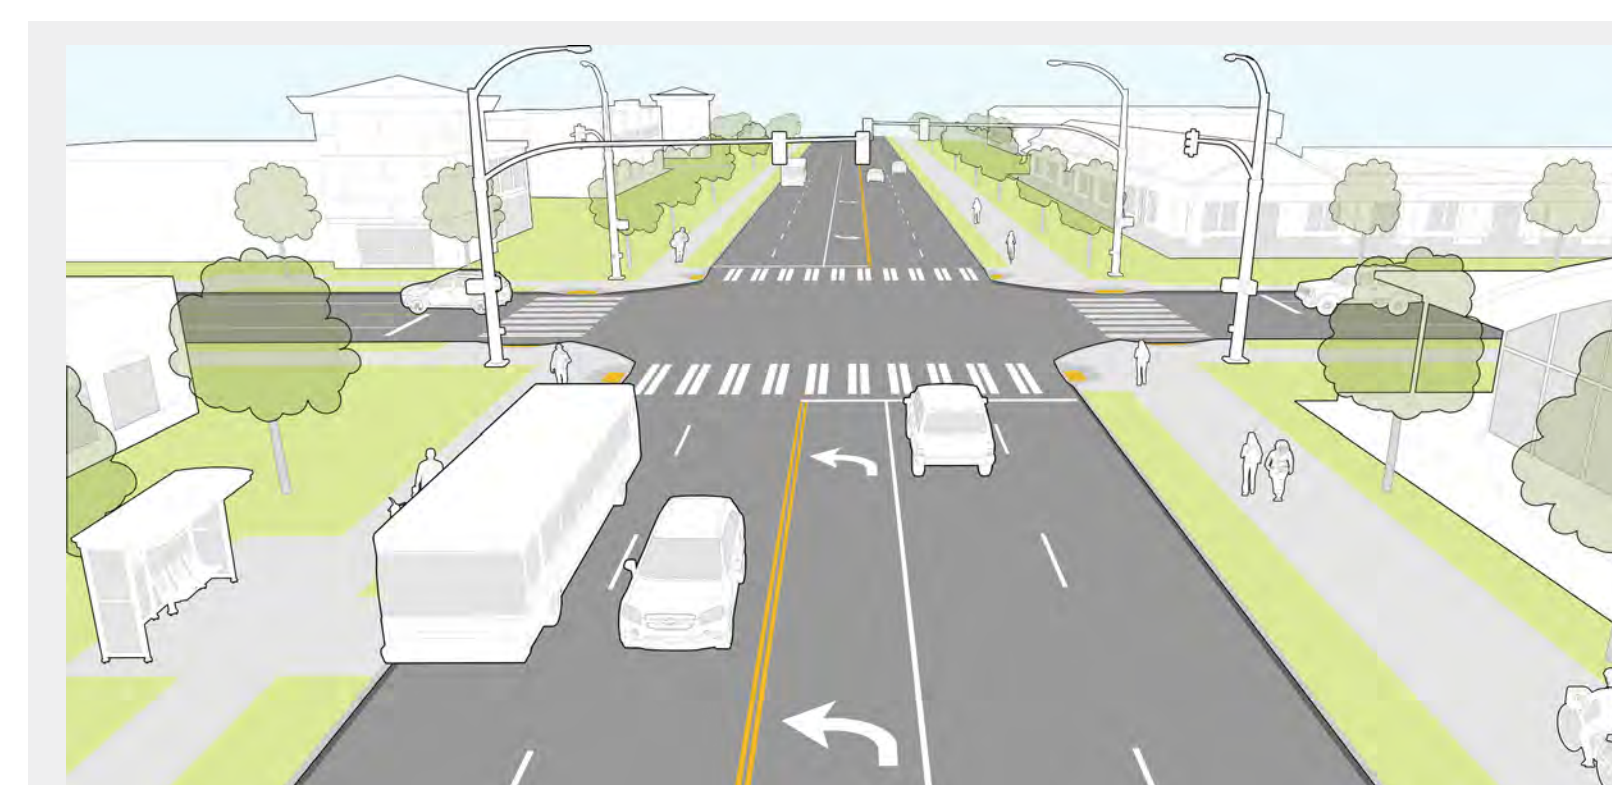

Neighborhood Street

Access-Oriented Streets

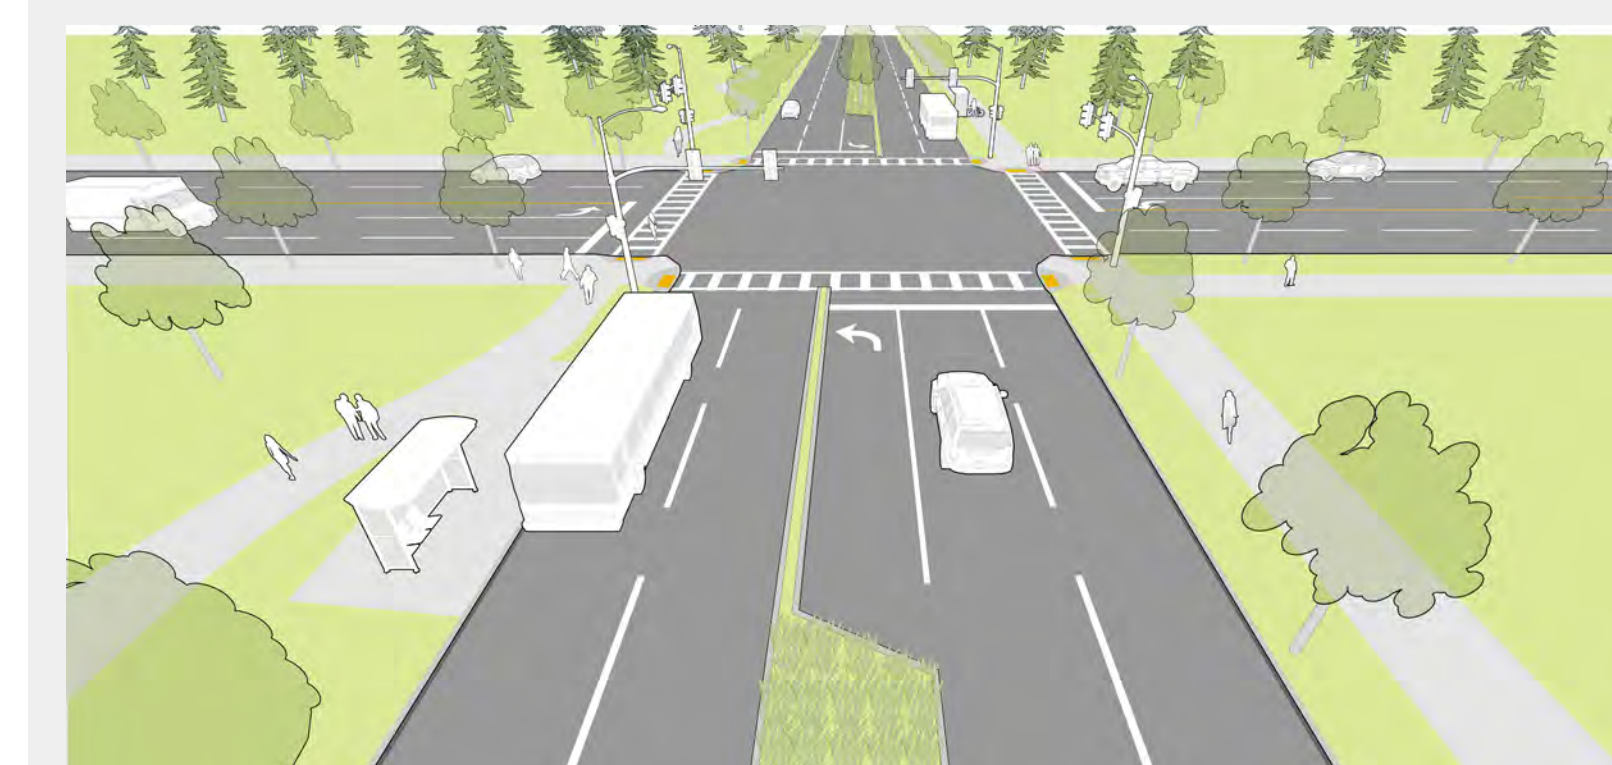

Avenue

Streets that Balance Access and Throughput

Thoroughfare

Throughput-Oriented Streets

Boulevard

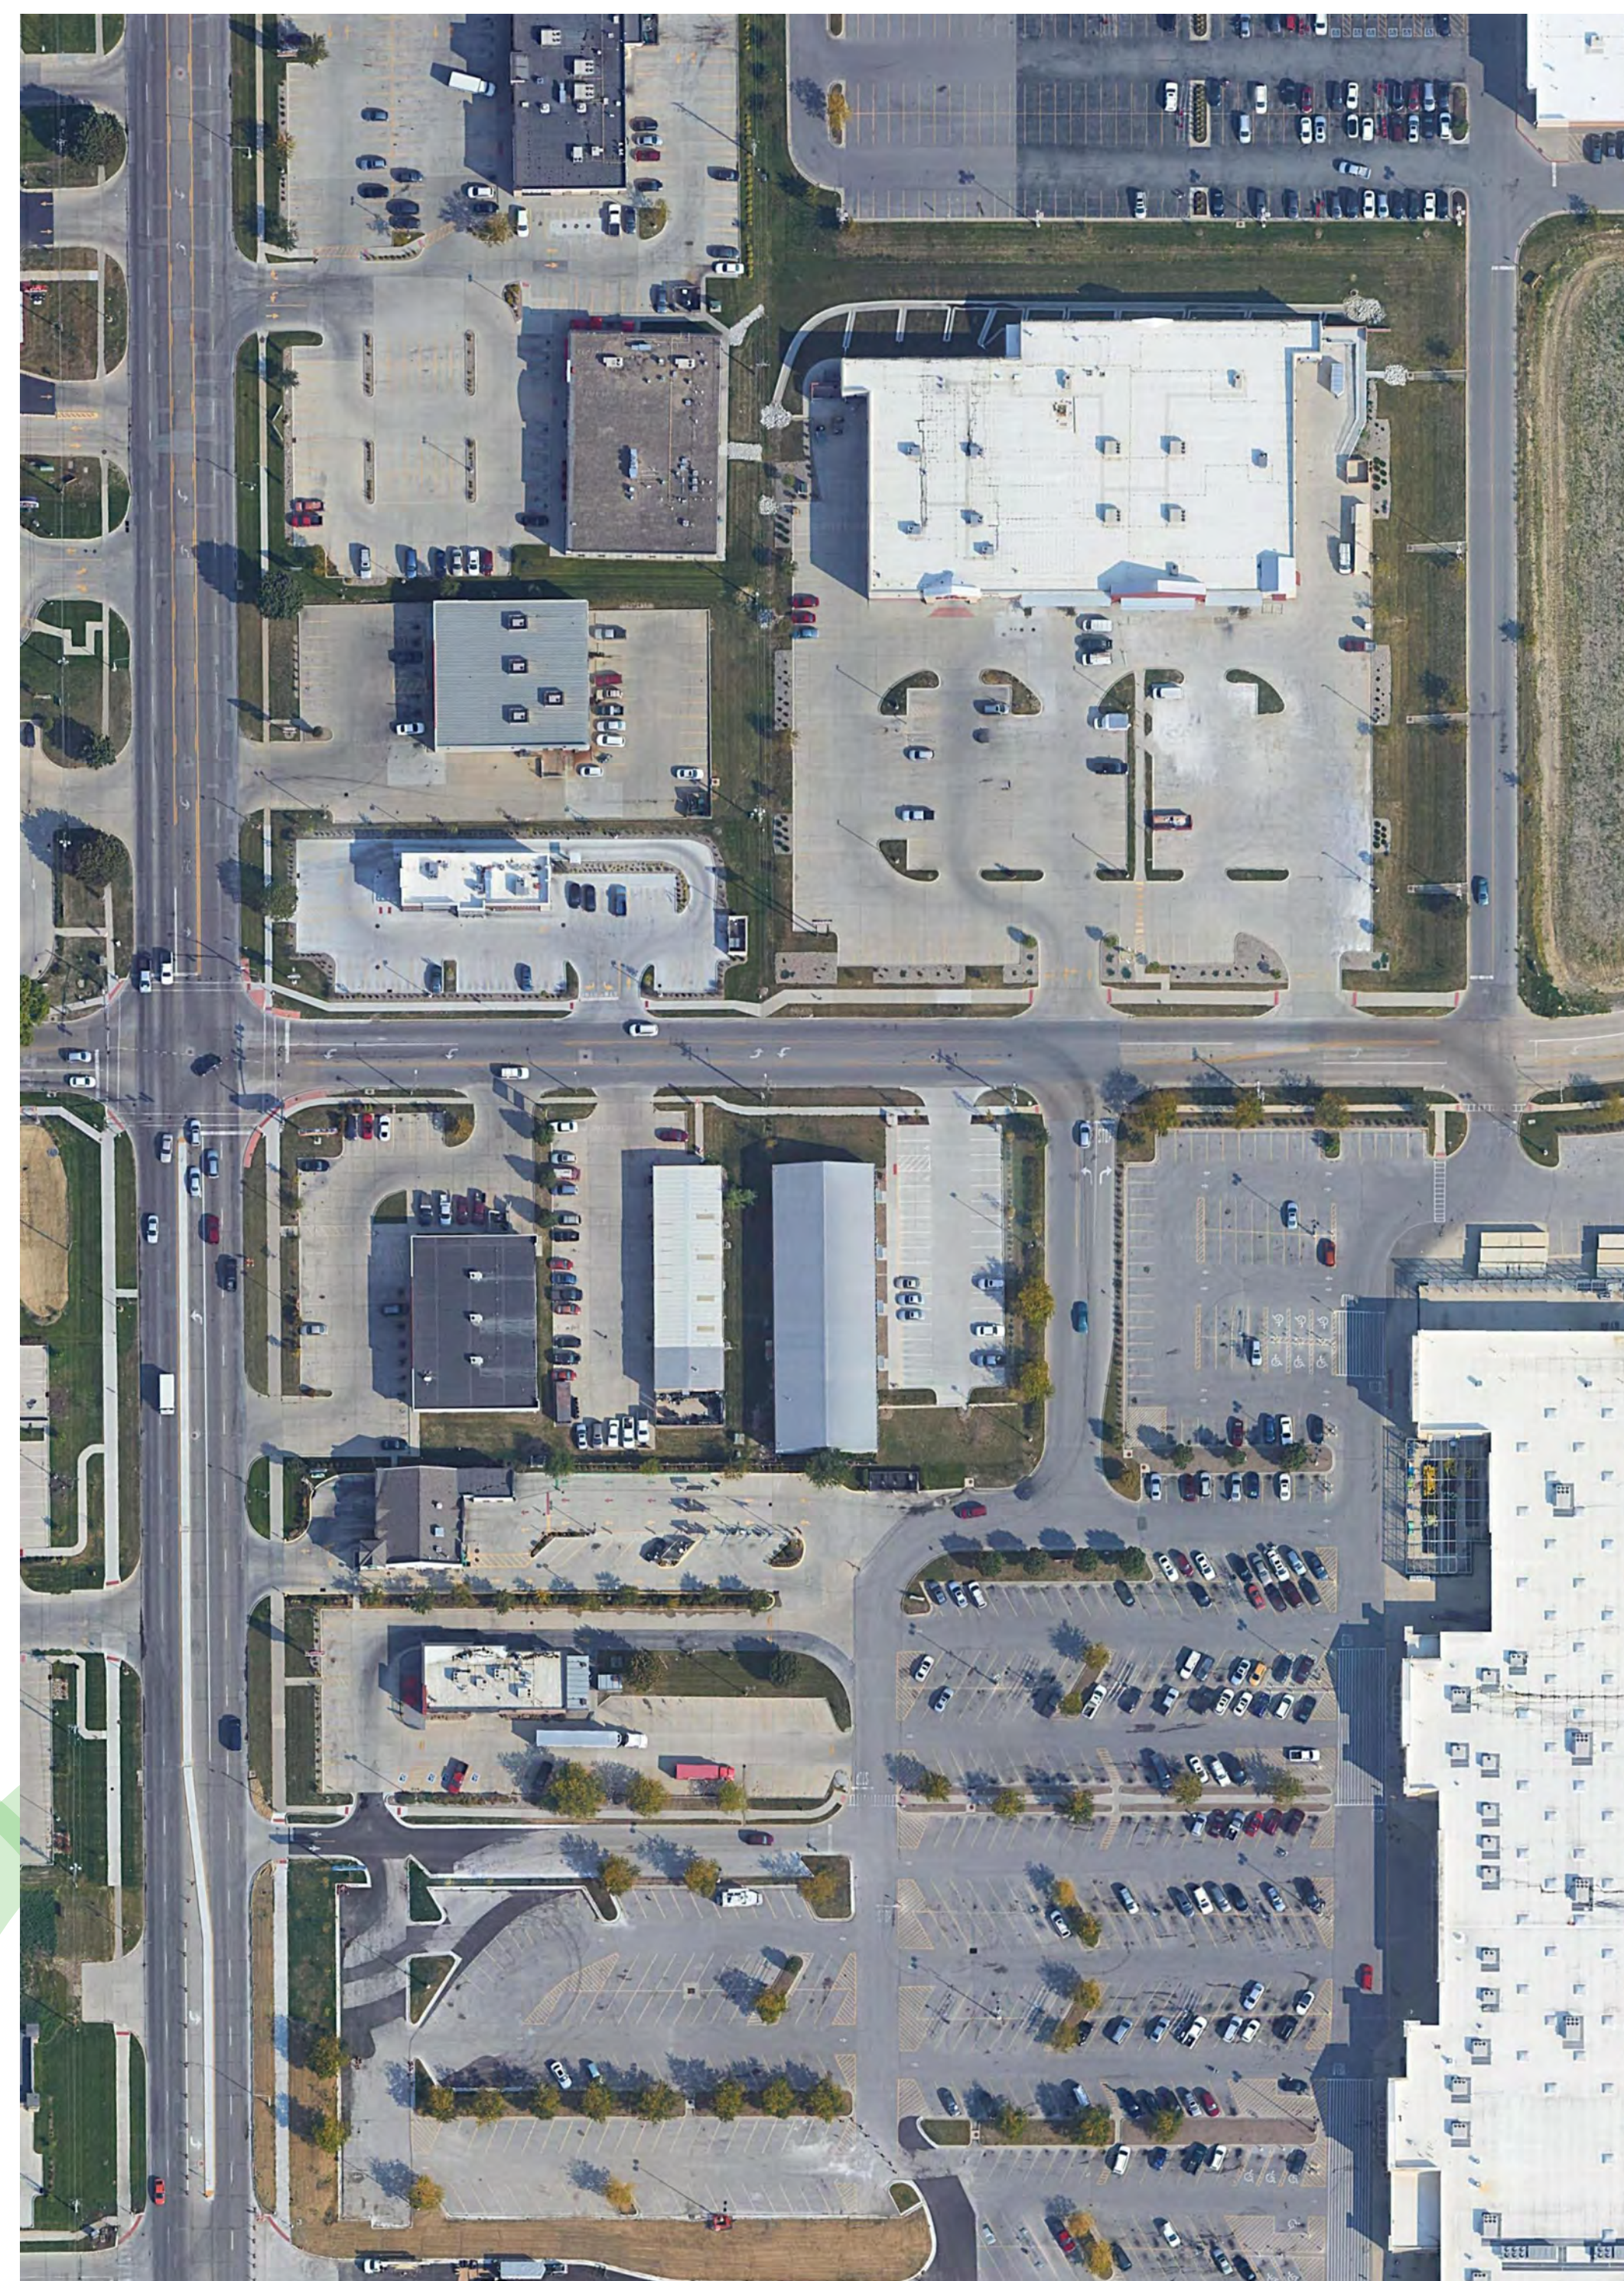

PLACE TYPE: LARGE SCALE COMMERCIAL

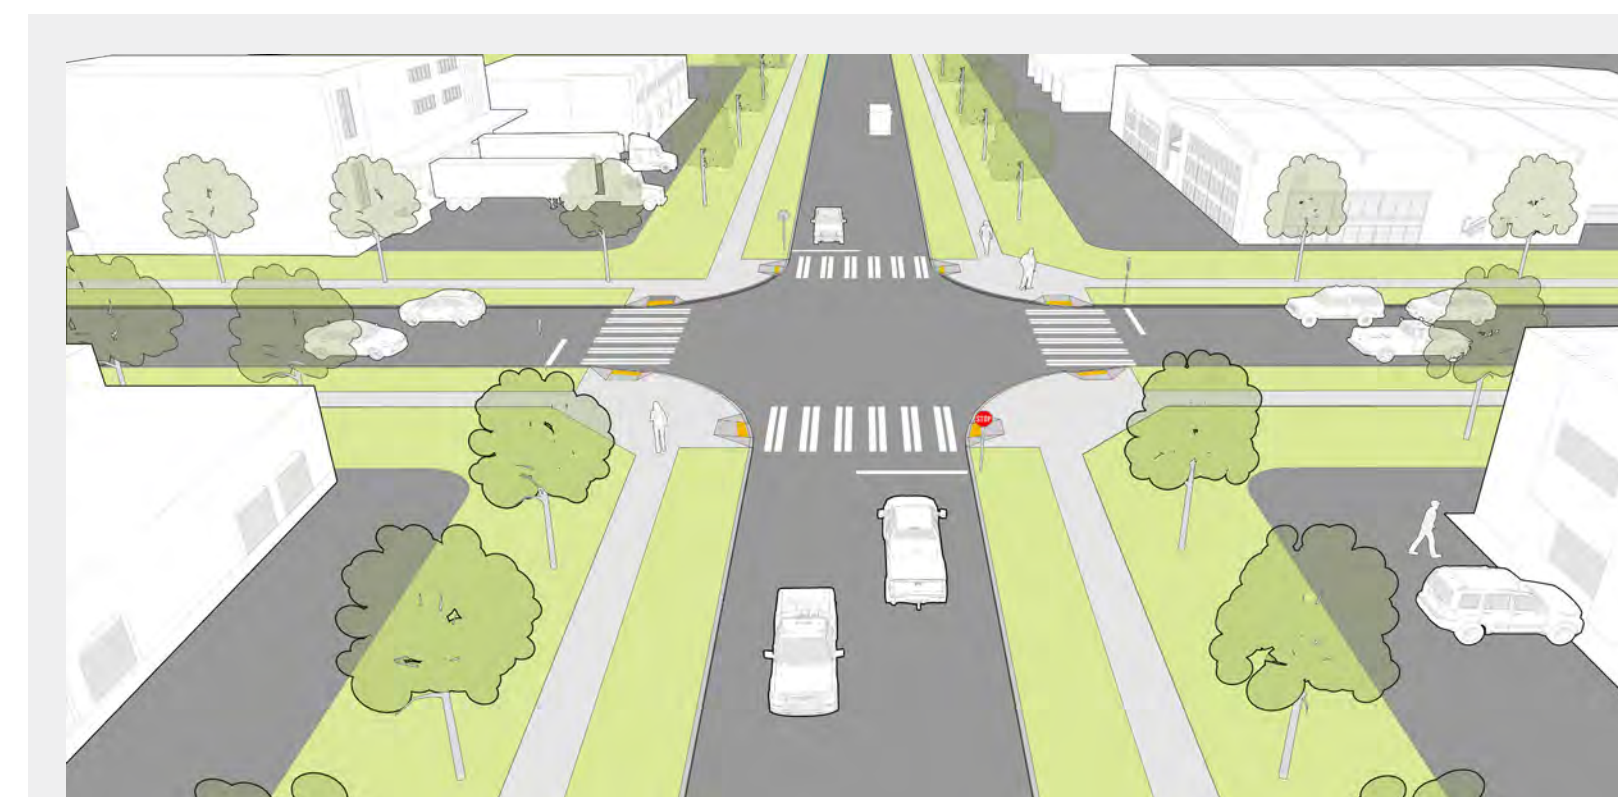

Areas oriented toward automobile traffic, with parking lots placed between streets and buildings.

EXAMPLE PLACES

North Grand Mall, South Duff Corridor

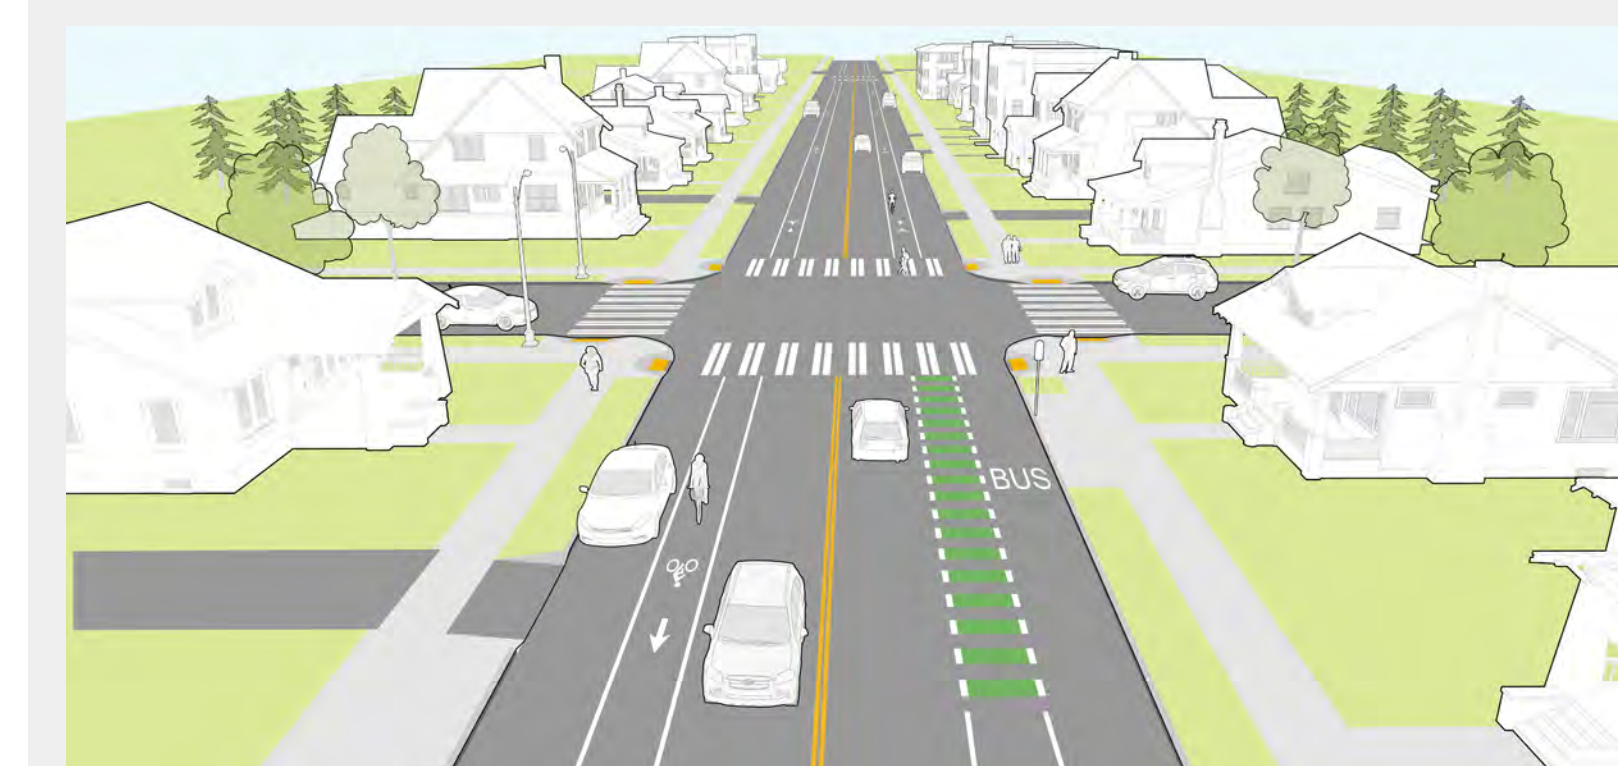

COMPATIBLE STREET TYPES

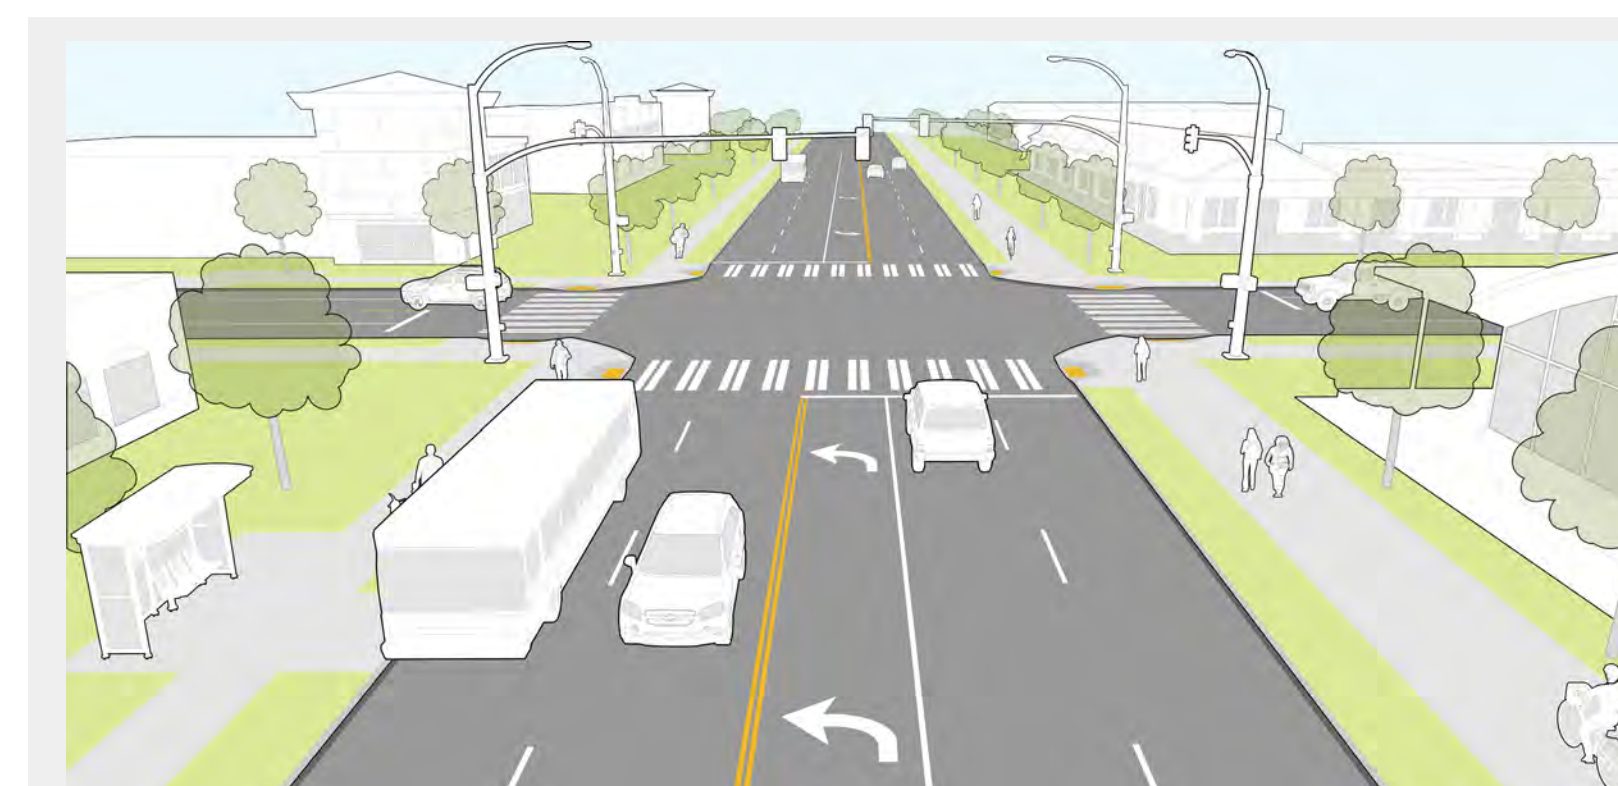

Industrial Street

Access-Oriented Streets

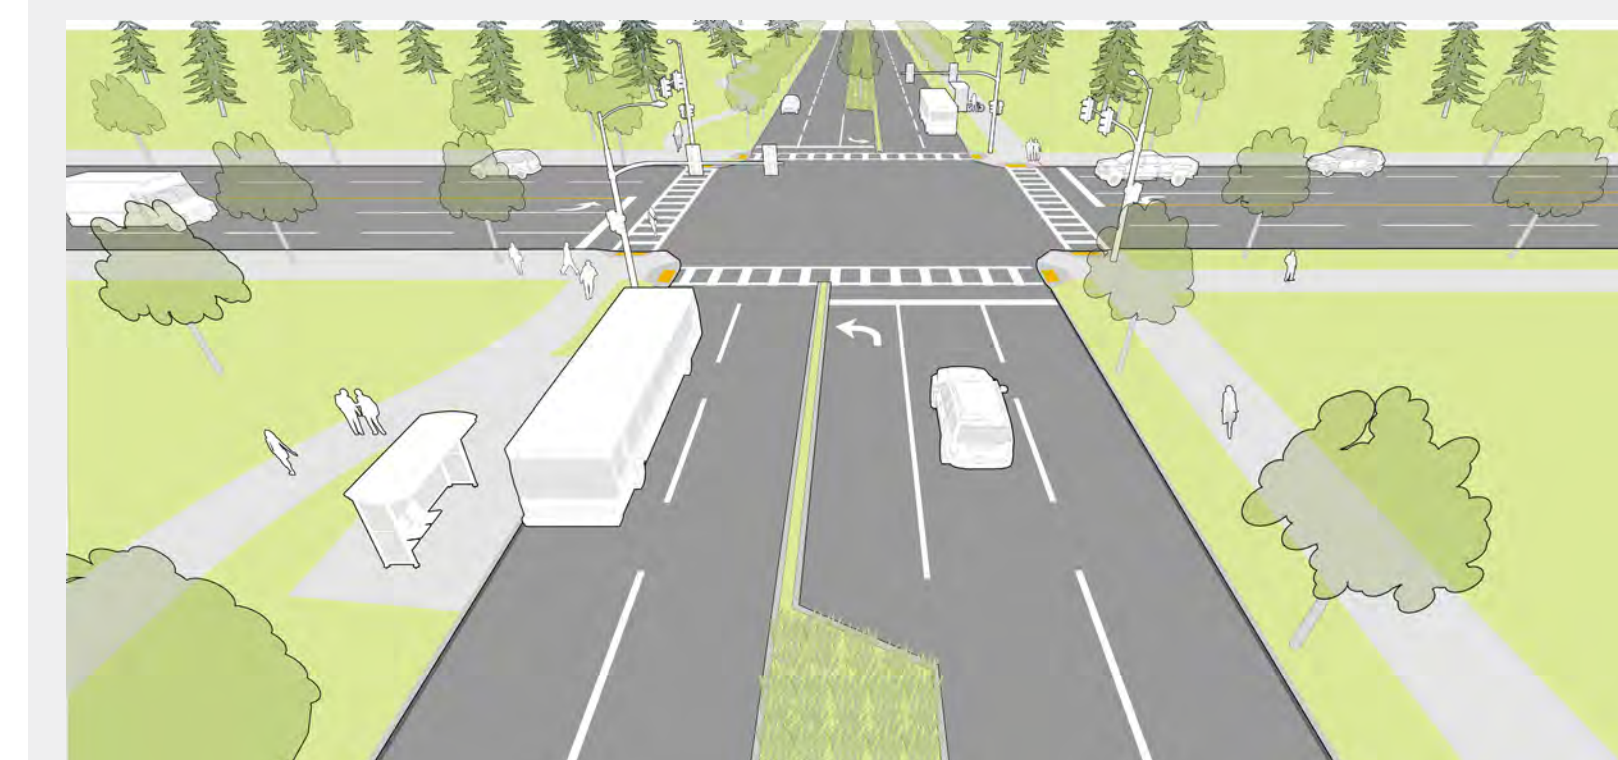

Avenue

Streets that Balance Access and Throughput

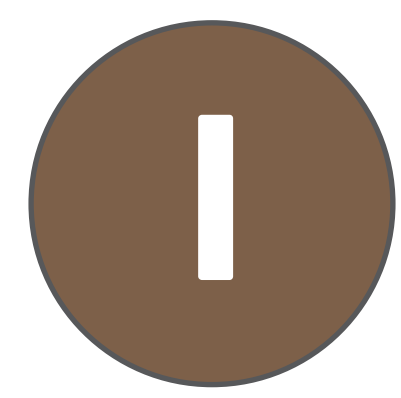

Thoroughfare

Throughput-Oriented Streets

Boulevard

PLACE TYPE: INDUSTRIAL

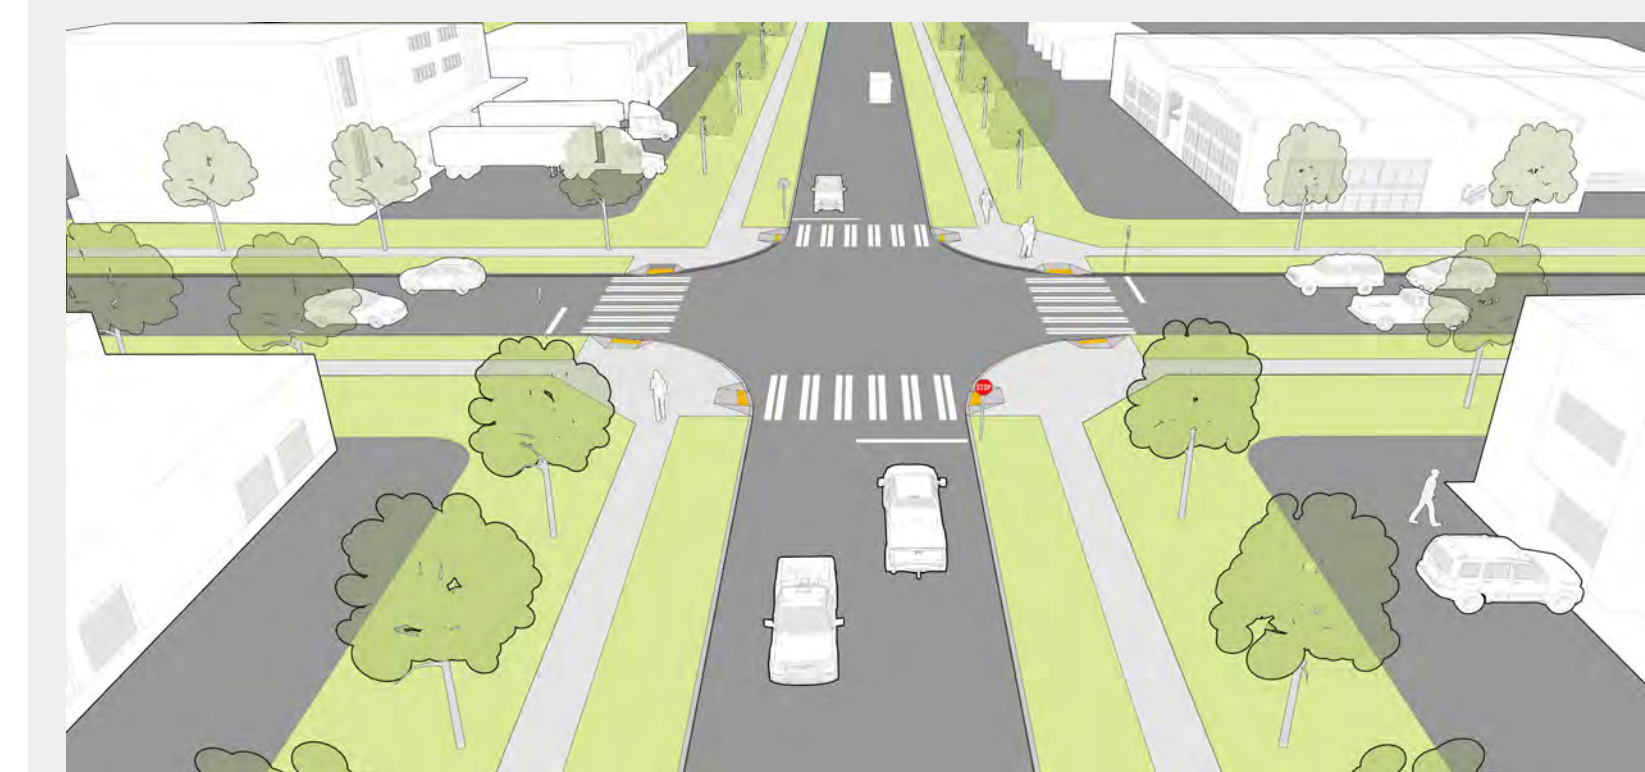

Areas with small to large, often sprawling buildings used for manufacturing and employment.

EXAMPLE PLACES

East Side Employment District, East Lincoln Way

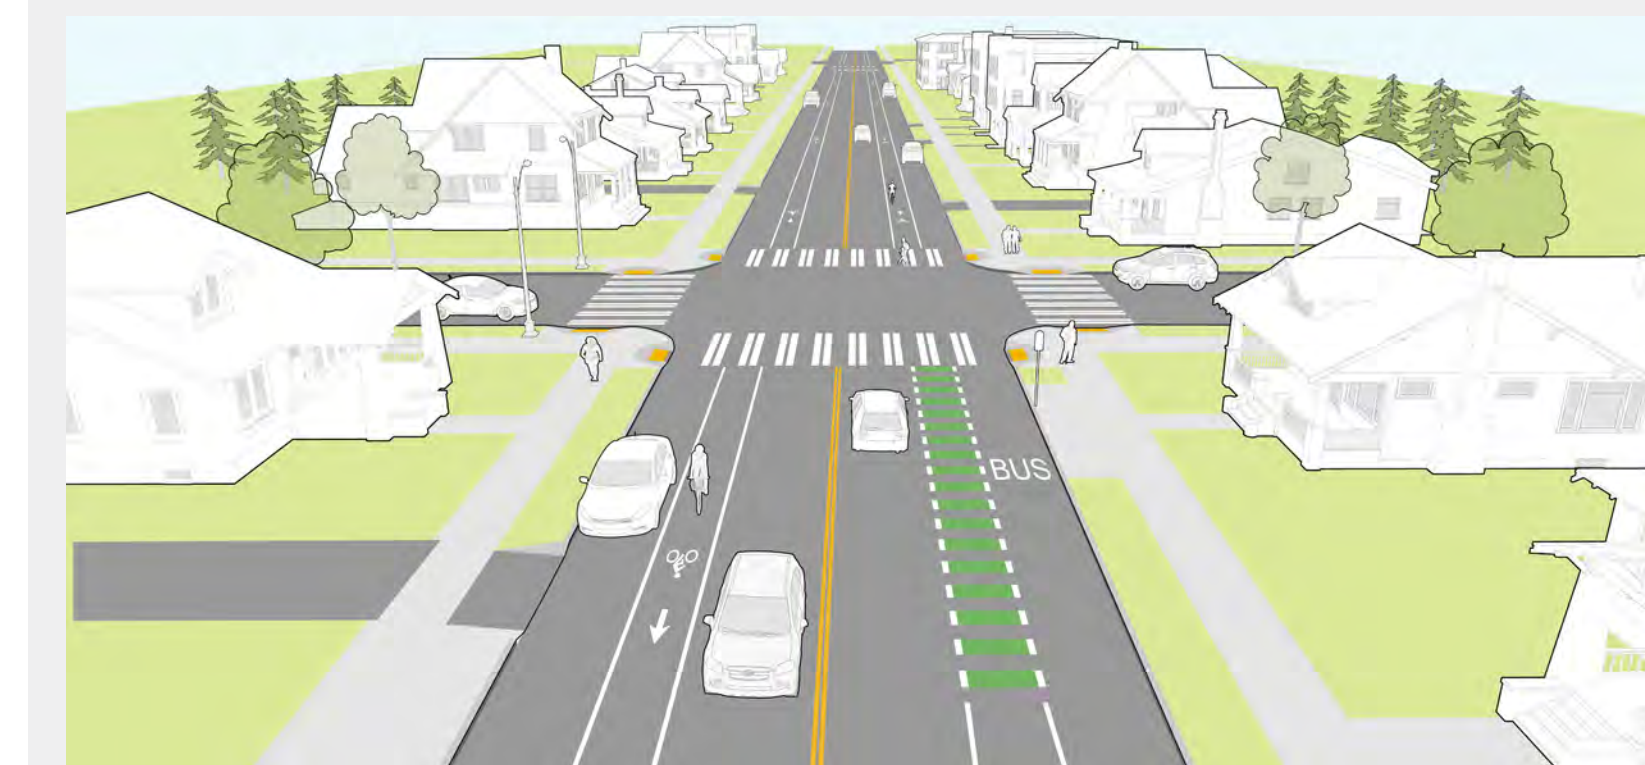

COMPATIBLE STREET TYPES

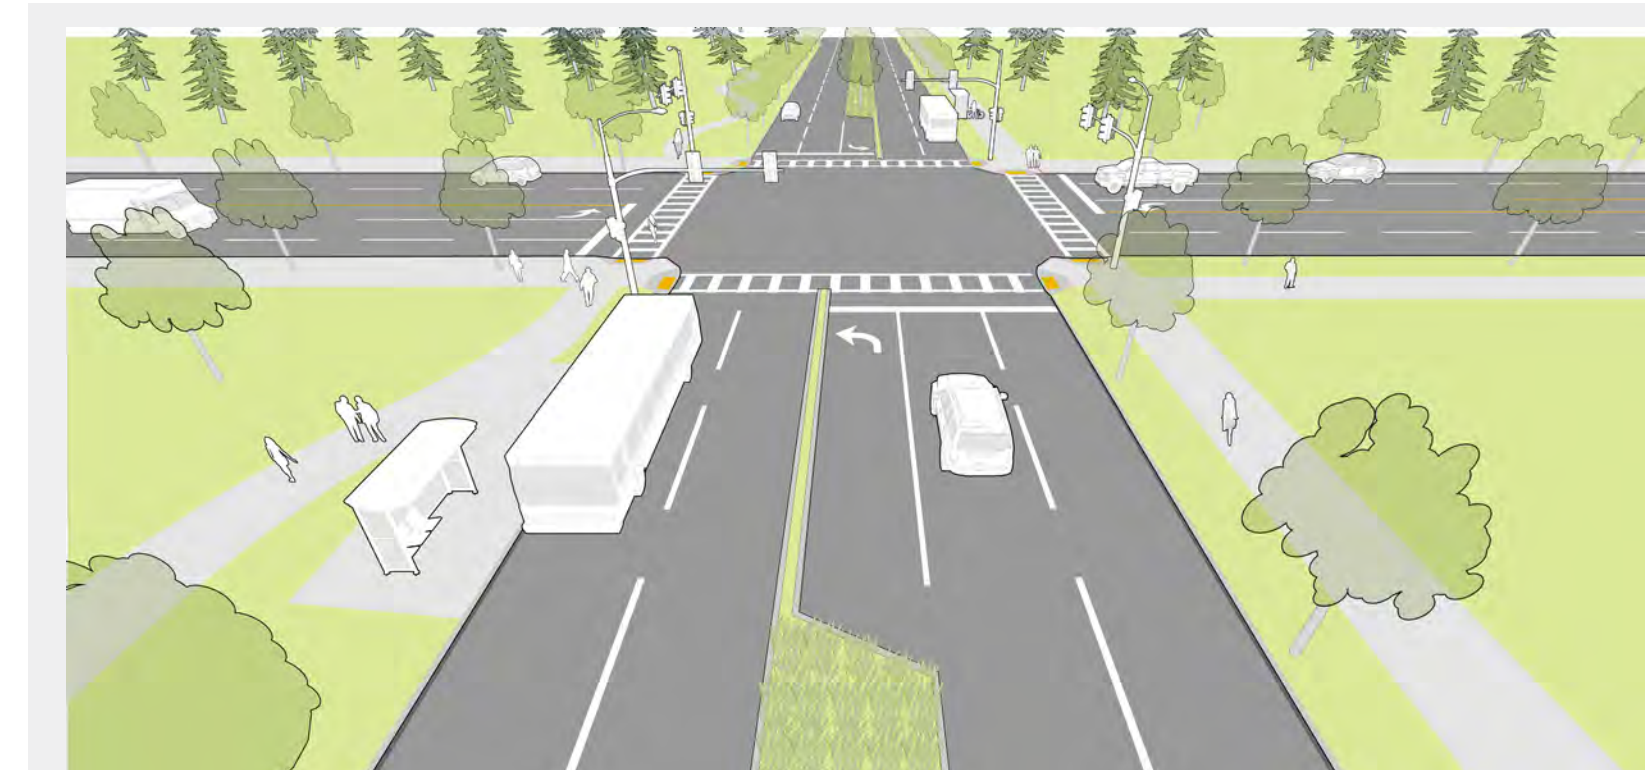

Access-Oriented Streets

Industrial Street

Streets that Balance Access and Throughput

Avenue

Throughput-Oriented Streets

Boulevard